Write the following passage in cursive writing.

The Busy Bee

The bees set a good example to all of us. They fly from flower to flower and collect sweet juice. This they make into honey. The wild bees have their homes among the rocks and trees. Bees have law and order in their lives.

The Queen Bee is the head of the community. She produces all the children. In the hive, bees store the honeycomb.

Each one of it is like a room in a house and each bee knows its own duty. Some of the bees go out and gather honey; others stay behind and guard the home. In the hive there is good order; all obey the law.

A bee has a sharp sting in its tail and it can hurt. The female bees are the workers. The male bees do not work.
